100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va. ; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number ; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing ; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands ; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands ; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. Alexandria Daily Advertiser.

PUBLISHED BY SAMUEL SNOWDEN,
ROYAL-STREET.

Daily Gazette, 7 dolls...Country, 5 dolls.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 24, 1819.

New-York, August 19.

Capt. Read, of the U States ship Hornet, has returned to this city from Washington, and it is supposed he has despatches for our minister at the court of Madrid.

[Gazette.

Philadelphia, July 20.

We stated the other day, from authority which we deemed credible, that the navy department had issued orders to double the number of men employed in building ships of the line in various ports. The same authority now informs us, that the intelligence originated in misapprehension. Orders were given for the employment of additional workmen on the 74 building in this port; but it is not known that hands on the other ships of war have been increased.

[Franklin Gazette.

The Boston Daily Advertiser states that the rumors in the country respecting the bad health of that town are unfounded. It gives a list of 28 deaths for the week ending on Friday last; among these were three cases of malignant fever; 4 of typhus; one of billious, and 1 of scarlet. The Advertiser could not learn that there was any thing in the malignant cases to cause an apprehension that the disease would be general or contagious. [Ibid.

The bilious remittent fever raged at Mobile, on the 24th of July.

STEAM SHIP.

It must be gratifying to the pride of every American, to hear of the safe arrival of the steam ship Savannah, which sailed from the port of that name, and reached the harbor of Liverpool, in twenty-five days. This is the first time that the ocean has been conquered by the power of steam, and this victory has been owing to American enterprize. We wonder what those transcendantly important characters, the Edinburg Reviewers, will say to this!

[Balt. Morning Chronicle.

Columbia, (S. Carolina) Aug. 17.

On Tuesday, the 3d instant, two negro men, two mules and a horse, were, at the same time, struck dead by lightning, at a mill on Broad River, about twenty miles above Columbia. One of the negroes belonged to Mr. George Lightner, and the other to Mr. Freshley, the owner of the mill.

Raleigh, August 20.

A MURDER.

On the 11th inst. John Hunt, of Orange County, was shot by a man named Sparrow, of said county, commonly called Buck Sparrow. It appears that Hunt and Sparrow, in company with a person named Barbee, had been hunting on the preceding day without success—that they slept at Sparrow's that night, and agreed to continue the hunt on the 11th Hunt being on Horseback, and the other two on foot, he undertook to drive, and being unacquainted with the woods lost himself. Sparrow and Barbee became tired of standing, and called at a house not far off to get some whiskey. While they were at this house, they heard a horn. Barbee said, "that is Hunt's horn, let us answer it;" Sparrow replied, "Aye, d——n him, he or I will be in Heaven or Hell before night." [Barbee took little notice of this extraordinary declaration at the time; but it has since appeared that Sparrow was vexed with Hunt for having as he believed, prevented a bargain between his father in-law and him for a tract of land.] Sparrow and Barbee proceeded to a spring in the woods with the whiskey, when hearing Hunt's horn again, they answered it, and he soon came to them. After resting some time, and drinking their grog, (though not to intoxication) the party prepared to go to driving again, when Sparrow asked Hunt to let him ride with him, to which Hunt at first appeared willing; but Barbee observing that his horse was too small to carry two men, he declined it; when Sparrow said, "if you will not let me ride I will shoot you."—Hunt going off, "said," "you will not surely do that;" when Sparrow replied, "d—n you, I will shoot you at any rate"—discharged his gun at his head, and killed him on the spot! Sparrow ran off, but was soon after pursued and taken, and having undergone an examination, is now safely lodged in Hillsborough jail, to take his trial at the next superior court.

The Louisiana Herald states that orders had been issued for the United States' troops at Nachitoches to march to the Sabine, to prevent auxiliaries and supplies going to the Independents of Texas.

Cincinnati, August 10.

PROJECTED EXPEDITION TO MEXICO.

The editor of the Nashville Clarion, of July the 27th, says, "for a month past we have had frequent reports of an expedition being projected from the Lower Mississippi, on the invitation of a leader of the Patriot army, to go towards the Spanish provinces, with a view of aiding the Republicans now engaged in those provinces, in their struggle for liberty." It seems, by his remarks, that parties from the United States have attached themselves to the standard of this chieftain, and to avoid giving offence to the laws of our country, leave our territory in small parties, and wait in convenient places for the coming up of those who choose to follow them.

The present situation of the Mexican provinces, being in a state of disquietude, their contiguity to our own possessions, and the immense wealth which they possess in the number and richness of their mines, added to the cause of the Patriots, hold out every inducement to enlist the "choice spirits" of our country. "who, tired of the dull pursuits of civil life," are willing to engage in enterprizes of ambition and self-aggrandizement. What will be the views of the government upon this subject, or what measures will be taken by them, we will not attempt to predict. But there being nothing in the constitution to prevent our citizens from emigrating to any country they choose, it is not the least unlikely that thousands will flock to the standard of the Patriots, and engage in the cause of their emancipation. An expedition of this kind will be far different from that of going to South America. There, Old Spain has sent her best troops, and continues still to make opposition. There too, our citizens have met treachery and disappointment; shut out from their country and from the hope of returning. But in the Spanish provinces of North America; especially in those adjoining our territory; the adventurer will apprehend less danger from the opposition of Spain, and feel more confidence from the knowledge that he is in the neighborhood of his own country.

We do not make these observations as countenancing or discountenancing an association of our citizens, with the Republicans of Mexico; but merely in reference to what will undoubtedly prove to be the fact; that the provinces will continue to make more vigorous efforts to obtain their independence; and that many from the U. S. will be willing to assist them. Should a daring and intrepid leader spring up in the province of Texas, a country, which, by different surrenders, of right ought to be free, not only his countrymen, but multitudes from these states would join him in the cause of liberty, and gladly participate in the perils of a revolution, to enjoy the glory of founding a new republic.

A correspondent to the editor of the Nashville Clarion, writes thus upon this same subject:

"To establish a new republic in that delightful region; to give liberty to a great nation enslaved by a handful of Europeans; to turn the commerce of a great empire, and the gold and silver of 300 mines into the bosom of the United States, are vast and magnificent objects. No friend to his country can contemplate such brilliant advantages without being smitten with their lustre. Wealth, fame, and the possession of the most delicious climate, is waiting to crown an expedition into that fine country, if the administration will, by remaining neuter, permit its maturity."

The extent of the Spanish possessions in North America, the richness of the soil, producing almost every luxury in the world, and the softness of the climate, furnish additional invitations to engage the assistance of the more enterprising and adventurous of the adjacent states; the length of the territory is somewhat over 2000 miles, with a main breadth of from 4 to 500; the face of the country is reported to be agreeably diversified with plains, intersected by rivers, and covered with forest trees.

The principal cities and towns of these provinces are Mexico, situated in the middle of a lake, and containing, it is supposed, nearly 100,000 inhabitants; Campeachy, St. Antonio, Vera Cruz, Santa Fee, and St. Josephs. The population of all the Mexicoes is estimated at about 7,000,000, consisting chiefly of Negroes, Indians, Creoles, and Spaniards. What proportion of this vast number has even ever thought of liberty, it would be difficult to say; but the principle is so natural in the human heart, and takes fire so easily from example, that it need only to be properly proclaimed by some powerful and popular chieftain to set the whole country in a blaze.

LES MAMELLES.

Edwardsville, (Ill. Ter.) June 26.

We have been favored with the perusal of a manuscript journal, from which, by the author's permission, we copy the following:—

EXTRACT FROM A PEDESTRIAN TOUR.

——— "I left the banks of the Missouri at St. Charles, and with my staff in my hand, took my course towards the Mississippi on the hills back of the town. The scenery was admirably calculated for reflection, and my mind insensibly recurred to the former history and situation of the country which I then traversed. I thought of the time when the banks of the Mississippi and Missouri were untrodden by the foot of white men, when the Indian hunter ranged undisturbed from the Rocky Mountains to the Mississippi, & the copper-colored native was the sole proprietor and owner of the soil; when the elk and the buffalo, and the deer, were undisturbed in their haunts. While in the midst of these contemplations, I was suddenly arrested in my course by reaching the brow of the hill. The sun was just descending behind the distant hills; the reflection of its last rays still played on the western sky; the heavens were clear, serene & unclouded. In front of me was a vast and almost interminable plain, which had every appearance of a field that had for several years been richly cultivated and improved. The rich grass was growing luxuriantly—scarcely a tree was to be seen—the most beautiful flowers covered the vast prairie—flocks of deer were seen at different places skipping about. Still there were but few marks of its being inhabited at present.—No fences, no cattle, no houses, no grain. I suddenly exclaimed, has this elegant spot never been thickly populated? Have these fields had no other inhabitants than we now see? Was nature so profuse in her gift, so lavish in her bounties, only that they might be wasted on the desart air? Impossible!—But the mind is lost in conjecturing the history of ancient times. Perhaps in some distant age, a great empire was founded on the banks of this greater Nile. On these fertile plains, some Memphis more splendid than the Egyptian city, may have reared its splendid domes & lofty palaces. This was perhaps the site of the capitol of a nation great in arts and in arms. The mind is lost in conjecture of the past, and equally so in anticipation.—From Les Mamelles you observe in front of you at a short distance where the Mississippi rolls along in silent majesty. Beyond it a chain of rocks, which are interrupted by the Illinois, which empties itself at this place into the Mississippi. To the right, the well known village of Portage des Sioux, almost connecting the Mississippi and Missouri, is just discernable, although obscured by the intervening trees.

On the other side flows the Dardenne and empties herself into the Mississippi—her banks shaded with trees. The eye never beheld in one view so elegant a landscape, and in which anticipation could indulge so wide a scope. But a few years, and this vast tract will be covered with farm houses, and fields of rich grain in every direction. The prospect from this delightful spot will then be enchanting. I could have indulged hours in pleasing anticipations, but the sun had hid its last rays, and warned me of the necessity of returning.'

New-York, August 19.

FROM HALIFAX.

We are indebted to our Boston correspondent for Halifax papers to the 7th inst.

His B. M. ship Newcastle, Adm. Griffith, and Active, Sir James Gordon, both arrived at Halifax on the 5th, in six days from Quebec. His M. ship Mersoy, with Earl and Countess Dalhousie on board, was to sail in a few days for Halifax.

The hon. Philip Wodehouse, and family, commissioner of the ships of war at Halifax, had sailed for England in H. B. ship Spartan, Capt. Wise.

The Halifax papers contain the following extracts from Jamaica papers.

Jamaica, July 3.

All the partizans of the buccaneering cause give out a dreadful war note. Porto Bello, they say, must be again taken.—Troops for the purpose are collecting at St. Domingo, St Andre's and Old Providence. In anticipation they already behold themselves in possession of that city. We readily believe, if they are enabled to collect a sufficient force, with the requisite cash, that an attempt will be made on some point of South America, and most likely it will be Porto Bello; but their success will be very doubtful, as the royalists, we hope, will be prepared for such a band, who with a view only of plunder, are holding out the fallacious idea of assisting to emancipate South America from Spanish thraldom. July 9.

We are in possession of Curacoa papers to the 19th ult. The Intrepid, Zuzaro, and Anna, Rugnor, from this Island, arrived on the 15th ult. The following paragraph is copied from one of the latest dates:—

"His Britannic Majesty's frigate Euryadus. of 36 guns, Capt. Huskisson, appeared off our harbor on Thursday afternoon. Her commander having come on shore, we learned that she had been to Margaritta, and had found that island in a perfect state of uproar and confusion. Jolli, it seems, had insisted on being commander in chief of the patriot naval forces, and hoisted the French flag at the foremast of his vessel, while Brion, as emblematical of their enmity, displayed the English ensign on board of his ship. Jolli, however, had been put under arrest, and was to be bro't to trial for his mutinous conduct."

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

The regular trading ship Hercules, Cobb, arrived last evening from Liverpool, which port she left on the 2d ultimo. Captain Cobb has favored the editors of the Mercantile Advertiser with papers to the 1st of that month, and London papers to the 29th June inclusive.

Previous to sailing capt. Cobb received the following note from capt. Coffin.

Friend Cobb.—Please to report the arrival of the Telegraph, at the N. E. Buoy, on the 26th June, in 24 days, without reefing since leaving port. Jacob Perkins Esq. made during the calm weather, many experiments with his instruments to prove the compressibility of water by the same element, which fact was established by immersion of the machine from 600 to 3800 feet below the surface of the sea. His Baythometer is a perfect sounding instrument, and is as true in a 10 knot breeze as a calm—indicating an fathom the machine is under the surface of the sea.

Yours, very truly, H. COFFIN.

British Stocks, June 29—67—67 1-8.

London, June 28.

The Florida treaty passed the U. States senate about the 23d February, and the ratification was to take place in six months. Mr. Forsyth arrived in Madrid about the 4th May, and up to the 10th inst. no progress had been made, but fresh obstacles had arisen. Nothing, however, authentic is known on the subject of the difficulty, but on all sides it is rumored that Spain will not be allowed to make a single bargain, and a variety of circumstances have led the public mind towards Cuba.

The cabinet of Madrid has long been aware that the people of Cuba are desirous of a separation from the government of Spain, and that nothing but the fear of an insurrection among the negroes has prevented the attempt.

On a cursory view it may appear a great object for the British government to obtain Cuba, a colony that by good administration would soon outstrip what St. Domingo once was under the French. It ought also not to be forgotten, that the entire subsistence of the island depends on external supplies, consequently a maritime war must produce ruin, more particularly between the United States and the holder of Cuba. Our government is certainly devising means to check the rapid growth of the U. States, but the possession of Cuba by us would have a contrary effect.

The vast commerce that already flows down the Mississippi, the immense tract of country rapidly settling on the Missouri, &c. point out very distinctly to the United States the necessity of making Pensacola a great maritime port, but such necessity would be increased in a tenfold degree if Great Britain possessed Havanna. There is besides the bay of Tampa, in the Floridas. The British cabinet moreover must be aware that any premature circumstances, more particularly when accompanied by any avowed spirit of competition, which may rouse into action the resources of the American government, and the enterprize of its citizens, must certainly accelerate the progress of that country in natural strength.

Great Britain ought therefore to ponder before she sacrifices her honor and other more paramount interests. We must not look to the moment. Spain is blustering wherever she can be heard, but the idea of her holding sway over Cuba, or of her long retaining in a state of subjection the vast country stretching on the Atlantic from Cape Horn to the Floridas, and from the former to California, on the Pacific, without a navy, is preposterous. Her moral influence in those regions is lost or fast subsiding, and her physical influence is nearly broken. She may, by cessions of territory, purchase a suspense, but this can only be temporary, as long as she cannot obtain active auxiliaries, and this she cannot do. The powers with whom she treats, may put a high price on their favors, but as far as Great Britain is concerned, the advantages gained will be of short duration, and the loss in commerce and character irreparable.

It is stated from Rome that Lucien Bonaparte had recenty applied to the government for permission to send his eldest son to his brother Joseph in America, and that Mr. Russell, the American minister in Sweden, was to arrange the young man's voyage, but that permission had been refused, at the same time advising Lucien to apply to the allied powers. The propensity to emigrate to America from the continent of Europe increases. Several thousands, it is stated, are preparing to embark from the kingdom of Wurtemburg.

Dresden, June 15.

Yesterday 42 waggons arrived with emigrants from Wurtemberg, who were going to Russia. To-morrow a division of 182 persons and 50 waggons will arrive here, and on the 19th a third division. They have their managers, quarter-masters and teachers. Divine service is performed, and on the days they halt, school is kept. There are families among them who have property to the amount of 8 or 10,000 florins.

Antwerp, June 17.

In this port has recently been witnessed a most dreadful outrage to humanity; from 350 to 400 individuals have been squeezed on board a small vessel of from 200 to 300 tons, commanded by a Prussian Captain, which has set sail for the Colonies; they are literally packed like herrings in a cask; they each of them paid in advance 150 florins; there will probably be a pestilence on board the ship before it reaches Flushing.

Accounts from Naples of the 4th of June state that a dreadful eruption of Mount Ætna had broken out, which threatened total destruction to the city of Catania. From Mount Vesuvius a very great eruption of lava had taken place in the direction of Pompei. Some violent shocks of an earthquake had been felt near Viterbo.

It was believed parliament would adjourn about the 10th July. Sir Francis Burdett was about to bring forward the question of Parliamentary Reform.

Accounts from Paris are to the 25th June. French stocks, 68 f 50. The French government have published an ordonnance allowing the exportation of flour and biscuit.

The King of Prussia it is said is about to be married to a princess of Wurtemburg.

In the French chambers it has been proposed to establish commercial relations with the independents of South America and to form a treaty with the government of Hayti.

A large meeting of manufacturers, traders and laborers at Cork, has taken place on the subject of their distresses; about 15000 persons assembled who agreed upon a petition to parliament, praying for a reduction of taxes, a tax upon absent land proprietors, and for a repeal of the union.

Meetings have also been held in Manchester, and Dewsbury, in Yorkshire.

In the house Lords, lord Nugent stated that he understood the Admiralty had denied that the Andromache frigate was carrying gold from South America for the Spanish government, and wished to know the fact. Mr. Croker, in reply, said the frigate was sent to that coast, at the request of British merchants only, with positive orders not to interfere with either party; he knew nothing of her having Spanish Property on board but through the newspapers.

The exiles, M'Gay Vernon, and Felix Desportes, have been permitted to return to France.

One of the British commissioners for the abolition of the slave trade, has left England for Havana.

Admiral Plampin has been removed from the command of the St. Helena squadron; admiral Gower is appointed to succeed him.

London, June 26.

It is a serious fact, that in the last year 1817-18, the trade from America to China employed 7,000,000 dollars 16,000 tons of shipping; during the same time the British trade to China occupied 6,500,000 dollars, and 20,000 tons shipping; consequently, allowing that the American merchant receives his return in the course of one year, while the British requires nearly two years—the American trade to China is already more extensive than our own. We state this important fact on the authority of Charles Assey, Esq late Secretary to the government of Java, author of an able Pamphlet, "On the trade to China, and the Indian Peninsula."

London, June 29.

Letters from Cadiz were received by the Post of yesterday, stating that several of the British transports had been discharged, not from their being no longer wanted, but because the Captains would not submit to new conditions the Spaniards wished to impose upon them. It appears that the experience acquired by the purchase of the rotten Russian ships has made the Cadiz Committee extremely cautious, and they now insist on the British ships being stripped before they proceed to sea, though many of them were fresh coppered before they left this country. With this the Captains refused to comply.

A Hamburgh Paper gives, as to the total of the army and navy of the Russian Empire, 863,000 men, of which number 75,000 are seamen.

Leave was given to bring in a bill, entitled, "an act respecting the landing and storing of hides," which was read a first and second time, (and the ninth rule being suspended,) was read a third time and passed.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensels and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26
